

ERIA Public - Private Partnership (PPP) Technical Workshop Series:
Toward Tailored Approach to Establishing PPP Guidelines in South East Asia

CO-ORGANIZER:	Ministry of National Planning and Economic Development (NPED), Myanmar
DATE:	August 11, 2014
VENUE:	The Hotel Amara, Nay Pyi Taw, Myanmar
OBJECTIVES:	The purpose of the workshop is to (i) address issues for PPP development in Myanmar, (ii) discuss how to refine ERIA “ PPP Guidelines in South East Asia ” from Myanmar specific as well as technical perspectives, and (iii) build a network among Private-Public-Academia concerned in PPP in Myanmar.
AUDIENCE:	Approx. 70 participants (of which 35 from concerned Ministries in Myanmar, 10 from Private Sector in Myanmar, 2 from academia in Myanmar, and around 20 from Private/ Public/ Academia from foreign countries)
STURUCTURE:	Morning session will provide participants with basic understanding of PPP and current situation in Myanmar, inviting speakers from academia, concerned Ministries, and private sector. Afternoon session, in the form of panel discussion, will focus on the PPP Guidelines to draw consensus on what should be included in the Guidelines for the application to PPP development in Myanmar.

WORKSHOP AGENDA

08:00-8:30 Registration

Morning Session

Master of Ceremony: Ministry of NPED, Myanmar

08:30-08:50 Opening Remarks

H.E. Dr. San Lwin, Deputy Minister Ministry of NPED, Myanmar

08:50-09:00 Photo Session

09:00-10:15	Session 1: Introductory Presentation: “What is PPP? Why is PPP framework necessary? How should governments enhance readiness for PPP development?” [Moderator] Dr. Thida Kyu, Professor, Yangon Institute of Economics [Speaker] Dr. Michael Regan, Professor, Faculty of Society and Design, Bond University, Australia - The Importance of a PPP Policy Framework Dr. Ibnu Syabri, Associate Professor, Bandung Institute of Technology, Indonesia - Risk Management and Stakeholder Management: Two Sides of The Same Coin Mr. Eleazar E. Ricote, Director IV, Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Center, Philippines - The Philippine PPP Program’s Policy, Regulatory and Institutional Framework Initiatives, Updates and Challenges Mr. Nik Nasir Majid, Independent Consultant, Malaysia - A Growth Path in National PPP Development: Views from Cambodia and Malaysia Mr. Adil Zaidi, Director, Infrastructure and PPP, Ernst & Young India - Keys to Creating Bankable PPP Projects: What Can ASEAN Countries Learn from India?
10:15-10:30	Discussions
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-12:00	Session 2: Assessment on readiness for PPP in Myanmar (Public & Private Sector perspectives) [Moderator] Project Appraisal and Progress Reporting Department (PAPRD), Ministry of NPED [Speaker] Department of Civil Aviation, Ministry of Transport - Airport Concessions and Foreign Investment Environment in Myanmar Department of Electric Power, Ministry of Electrical Power - Power Sector Development through PPP/ BOT in Myanmar Ministry of Rail Transportation - Potential and Challenges for Implementing PPP Projects in Road and Rail Transport Sector Union of Myanmar Federation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry (UMFCCI) - Private-Public Dialogue Mechanism
12:00-12:15	Discussions
12:15-13:15	Lunch

Afternoon Session

Master of Ceremony: Ministry of NPED, Myanmar

13:15-13:45 Session 3: Explanation of ERIA “PPP Guidelines in South East Asia”

Dr. Fauziah Zen, Economist, ERIA

13:45-14:45 Session 4: What are agreeable/ missing in the PPP Guidelines?
(from Public Sector’s perspectives)

[Moderator]

Dr. Michael Regan, Professor, Faculty of Society and Design, Bond University, Australia

[Discussant]

Department of Public Works, Ministry of Construction

Budget Department, Ministry of Finance

Mr. Eleazar E. Ricote, Director IV, Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Center, Philippines

Mr. Nik Nasir Majid, Independent Consultant, Malaysia

14:45-15:00 Coffee Break

15:00-16:00 Session 5: What are agreeable/ missing in the PPP Guidelines?
(from Private Sector’s perspectives)

[Moderator]

Dr. Fauziah Zen, Economist, ERIA

[Discussant]

Union of Myanmar Federation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry (UMFCCI)

Mr. Adil Zaidi, Director, Infrastructure and PPP, Ernst & Young India

16:00-16:15 Closing Remarks

Mr. Yasushi Iwata, General Manager, ERIA