

List of Figures

Figure 1	Classification of ASEAN nations in terms of IFRS adoption	7
Figure 2	'Division of Accounting Systems' and 'Segmenting of Accounting Standards'	96
Figure 3	Initiatives towards dissemination of Standards	104
Figure 4	Structure of the Small- and Medium-Sized Enterprise Management Enhancement Support Act	106
Figure 5	Assumptions about SME accounting	117
Figure 6	Functional theory approach and mechanical theory approach	124
Figure 7	Percentage of professionals familiar with FRF for SMEs	143
Figure 8	Interest in the introduction of FRF for SMEs	144
Figure 9	Significant Stakeholder in the introduction of FRF for SMEs	145

List of Tables

Table 1	Countries where field researches were conducted	6
Table 2	Major research targets and the reasons for selection	9
Table 3	Major survey items for research targets	10
Table 4	Working Group members	12
Table 5	Outline of Working Group meetings	12
Table 6	Definitions and percentages of SMEs in the Philippines	15
Table 7	Bookkeeping violations and penalties	16
Table 8	Agencies subjected to research in the Philippines	17
Table 9	Agencies subjected to research in Singapore	24
Table 10	Current accounting standards in Cambodia	31
Table 11	SME definition by SME committee (MIH)	32
Table 12	SME definition by General Department of Taxation (MEF)	33
Table 13	SME definition by accounting rule (MEF)	33
Table 14	Agencies subjected to research in Cambodia	36
Table 15	Number of entities that assume accounting-related obligations in Thailand	44
Table 16	Definition of SMEs in Thailand	45
Table 17	Number of SMEs in Thailand	45
Table 18	Agencies subjected to research in Thailand	46
Table 19	Definition and number of SMEs in Malaysia	57
Table 20	Agencies subjected to research in Malaysia	58
Table 21	Definition of SMEs in Indonesia	66
Table 22	Agencies subjected to research in Indonesia	67
Table 23	Accounting standards required for LLCs, etc.	80
Table 24	Structure of the Accounting Guidelines for SMEs (2014 Version)	98
Table 25	Four basic policies and five considerations related to SME accounting	100
Table 26	General Accounting Standards for SMEs	101
Table 27	Roles and initiatives by entity in relation to disseminating Standards	105
Table 28	Major differences between Guidelines and Standards	107
Table 29	Differences between the bottom-up approach and the top-down approach	110
Table 30	History of SME accounting system in Japan	113
Table 31	Corporate attributes of SMEs and the ‘assessment framework’	118
Table 32	Merits of the principle of congruency in Japan	121
Table 33	Main purposes of the bookkeeping standards for small- and medium-sized enterprises	126
Table 34	Seven Principles of Bookkeeping Standards for Small- and Medium-Sized Enterprises	127
Table 35	Definitions of Small Entities in China	132
Table 36	Accounting Standard Options for Korean Companies	135

Table 37	Accounting standards for SMEs in the US	138
Table 38	Conceptual Framework of FRF for SMEs	140
Table 39	Differences between FRF for SMEs and IFRS for SMEs	146
Table 40	Accounting system in the UK	153
Table 41	Definitions of small company and small group under the UK Company Act	154
Table 42	Cases of companies that obtained results from the adoption of accounting standards (Cases in Japan)	161
Table 43	Staged development of accounting requirements for SMEs (conceptual)	172