ERIA launches website for Public-Private Partnership (PPP) in ASEAN

ERIA launches special website for Public Private Partnership (PPP) in ASEAN at ERIA official website.

(<http://www.eria.org/special/ppp.html>)

ERIA has contributed to Comprehensive Asia Development Plan (CADP) and Master Plan on ASEAN Connectivity (MPAC) substantially.

It is highly expected for ERIA to monitor and actually help for materializing those projects in the plans, together with partners. Both of the plans state the importance of the PPP for implementation of projects.

ERIA has worked together with some ASEAN countries for institutional development for PPP and the development, which should be shared with investors and concerned experts. ERIA has also worked for project development with professionals and some of projects are to be bidden out soon. ERIA is committed to communicate regional PPP development with potential investors and concerned professional in close cooperation with governments and professionals for the successful implementation of infrastructure projects under PPP scheme.

We start with basic information of PPP framework in the region at this time. We believe these materials, which describe PPP in ASEAN in a nutshell, help all the people concerned to grasp complicated PPP framework in each country. We will release sector/country-specific study, individual projects' information and updates on this website.
