Panel Discussion Session: Forging Partnerships to Deliver the MPAC
10.15- 12.00	Infrastructure investments are important not only for economic stimulus during the current period of slow growth but also to ensure that long-term development is maintained. To realise ASEAN Connectivity, the Asian Development Bank and the World Bank estimated that Asia needs to invest over USD 7.5 – 8 trillion in overall regional and national infrastructure to make up for historical underinvestment and accommodate the explosion in demand over this decade. ASEAN, on the other hand, needs to invest over USD 600 billion over the same period. ASEAN is mobilising resources from within and outside the region to finance the Master Plan. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How to mobilise the scarce resources available? • What are the key elements in promoting public-private partnerships (PPP) in infrastructure development? • How to attract private sector investment in infrastructure given the long gestation period and the availability of other investments with better returns? • What are the success stories in the region and the world? Moderator: H.E. Pradap Pibulsonggram, ACCC Representative for Thailand Presentation: Key to Infrastructure Development: Public-Private Partnership Mr. Eleazar E. Ricote, Director of PPP Center of the Philippines Panelists: Mr. V Raman Narayanan, Regional Head for ASEAN Affairs, Air Asia. Mr. Bambang Brodjonegoro, Head of Fiscal Policy Office, Ministry of Finance of Indonesia Kamran Khan, Program Director, Global Infrastructure Finance, the World Bank Mr Oudet Souvannavong, Member, ASEAN Business Advisory Council Mr. Keith Martin, CEO of Global Capital & Development Medini,
