

Acknowledgements

This report was developed by a joint working group comprising teams from the Lao PDR and the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA). The Lao PDR team consisted of staff from the Ministry of Energy and Mines, the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, and Electricité du Laos. The ERIA team was composed of researchers from its energy unit, Tokyo Electric Power Company (TEPCO) Power Grid Incorporated, and the Asia Research Institute. We would like to thank the members of the working group for their excellent work and contributions.

Special acknowledgement is also given to Mr Khammun Sorpaseth, Deputy Director General, Institute of Renewable Energy Promotion, Ministry of Energy and Mines, the Lao PDR, for his very helpful comments and suggestions as head of the Lao PDR team.
